Enroll and Report Database is Now Online After Hale Library Fire

If you've been watching our Facebook page or the Community Opportunities emails, you know that the fire at Hale Library on campus in Manhattan affected access to the website, enrollment and reporting database. Fortunately, the database and website have all been restored, so this is your "all clear" to do any enrolling or reporting you had previously planned on. – Jan Steen, Kansas PRIDE Co-Coordinator, K-State Research and Extension jmsteen@ksu.edu

Week of PRIDE - Contest

Everyone loves a good contest, so we're offering up a signed copy of this year's Week of PRIDE proclamation, signed by Governor Colyer. To participate, take a picture of your Week of PRIDE Project with your community partner visible at the site. Your partner can be your local 4-H club, Masonic Lodge, Lions Club, church youth group, etc. – whatever group or groups you might work with to improve your community.

By June 30th, e-mail your pictures to us at PRIDE@ksu.edu. We'll post them on Facebook. The community's picture with the most likes will win the signed 2018 proclamation. Limit 1 picture submission per community, and you must report to enter. CLICK HERE to report. Visit the Week of PRIDE web page for a photo release form, should your photo have youth pictured: <http://kansasprideprogram.k-state.edu/about/weekofpride.html> – Jan Steen, Kansas PRIDE Co-Coordinator, K-State Research and Extension jmsteen@ksu.edu
